STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1907.

NO. 85.

MIDDLEBURG.

The Baptist parsonage is the only vacant house in town.

Why not build a few cottages to rent out? It would surely be a paying investment.

Rev. W. G. Gilford will return from Louisville Saturday and preach at the Baptist church Sunday. The church has not called a pastor to succeed Rev. H. M. Shouse but will take some action Saturday.

There has been considerable moving here since Jan. 1. S. G. Elliott has moved into the Durham property. R. K. Swope has gone to the Cowan property and James Winfrey to J. S. Taylor's house.

Drs. J. G. Carpenter, of Stanford, and J. M. Hiney and J. T. Wesley, of this place, operated on a little son of Zack McAninch for strangulated hernia and the little fellow is doing well at this writing.

A two-year-old child of Austin Short swallowed one half of a pair of spectacles a week or more ago and had to be taken to Louisville Monday to have it removed. We have not learned the result of the operation.

The Baptist Sunday school gave a nice treat to the children Sunday. Misses Mollie and Lillie Gilford and Willie Fogle had charge of the work and it was gratifying indeed to see how the little folks enjoyed it.

The weather has been so warm and balmy for the last few days that frogs in the ponds have begun croaking as in Springtime. Some are of the opinion that winter is over, but there is time enough yet for an ice season and it will more than likely come.

Miss Etta Gifford will return from Louisville this week. Dr. Stapleton, of Gentry county, Mo., aged father of Mrs. R. J. Austin, of this place, arrived to spend the winter with his daughter. F. L. Jones and wife went to Somerset Saturday to visit Mr. John Hatos and family.

Mr. D. B. Coleman, who was born and raised here but left us 20 years ago and located at Calool, Mo., is here shaking hands with his friends. Everybody was glad to see Boone and hear him rattle his tongue, which was always loose at both ends. The Lord seems to have dealt kindly with him. He is looking well and is getting along fairly well in the world.

RESOLVED.

This year I'm thinking
I will do
A swear off that will
Be quite new;
The man that dares
Hurt in on me
When I am busy
As can be.
And sit and talk
Talk and chew
Until the air around
Turns blue,
And still sit still and
Still talk on
Until my working
Day is gone,
Will find that I've
Prepared myself
To lay him gently
On the shelf;
I'll get all kinds
Of warlike gear,
Axes and clubs
And hide them here,
And when the sit still
Draweth nigh
I'll rise and smite him
Hip and thigh,
Fall like an earthquake
Onto him
And simply rend him
Limb from limb!
They may arrest and
Shut me tight
In jail, but I'll
Get out all right
When tried; I'll have
My jury then
Composed of busy
Business men.

A Jamaican Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service, at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

Rains have caused much damage in the vicinity of Hickman and several houses have been wrecked by landslides.

Disturbed the Congregation.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. G. L. Penny.

WAYNESBURG.

The weather of the past week has been very hard on the four rural route carriers from this office.

W. M. Smith has moved his mill to Waynesburg and is prepared to grind and crush corn and will soon be ready to do custom sawing.

L. G. Gooch has succeeded his son, C. C. Gooch, as book-keeper for L. G. Gooch & Son, on account of the weakness of his son's eyes.

Waynesburg has not failed to have Sunday school but three or four times in about 20 years and the intention is to make this the banner year.

S. W. Harris, of Berea, has located here and will be a partner with Harry Jacobs in the tombstone business. Dean McMullin, of Bertram, Texas, is here with friends and relatives. Misses Anna and Lena Padgett have returned from a visit to Somerset. Born to the wife of T. D. Williams, a 11½-pound boy.

The Maccabees elected the following officers for the ensuing year: H. H. Singleton, commander; R. Curtis, Lt.-Com; Taylor Wesley, R. K. and P. K.; W. R. Singleton, Chap.; A. K. Caldwell, physician; R. D. Padgett, first M. of G.; W. R. Reynolds, second M. of G.; W. H. Singleton, sentinel; D. N. Perry, picket. The K. O. T. M. contemplate rebuilding a hall on the old site in the near future.

Wm. Jackson and family, of West Virginia, are visiting Mrs. Jackson's father, E. B. Caldwell. C. C. Newell has closed a successful school here. G. T. Gooch and wife, of Somerset, spent the holidays with friends and relatives here. H. G. Vanarsdall, of Lexington, is here on business. Elmer Gooch and L. G. Singleton, of Bowling Green, are with their parents here. R. D. Padgett and son, Walter, spent several days with relatives at Eubank. W. I. Herrin, of Stanford, passed through our town last Saturday. Mrs. Woodie S. Jones, of Stanford, and Miss Lottie Gooch, of McKinney, attended the fifth Sunday meeting at Waynesburg. Morris Marcum, of Cascade, Mont., was here last week. F. S. Gooch, of Somerset, was here Sunday.

OTTENHEIM.

G. D. Boone bought of Mr. Leiger the largest hog that has been sold here for some time. It weighed 500 pounds.

S. J. Pollard killed a large black snake a few days ago, which is something unusual for this season of the year.

Ottenheim is on a boom again. W. F. White has built a new store room and will open his stock of goods on the 15th. He should do well as he is a clever gentleman.

Miss Rebecca Mullins is in Missouri visiting her brother, Tullie Mullins. It is with much regret that the people of this vicinity give up J. A. James, who is an excellent citizen. His sale will occur on the 15th. Frank Coleman, who has been working in Cincinnati, has returned for his wife. They will make their home in the Queen City. L. A. Tucker went to Somerset to take a position on the railroad. John Griffin, of Illinois, is visiting relatives in this section. G. M. Ballard, of Somerset, was here looking after his business affairs.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by the Stanford Drug Co.

Wait not for Luck to draw the bolt,
Nor Chance give up her key—
The door that opened for the great
Is open yet for thee.

Luck is a sleepy sentinel,
And Chance a fleckle light;
Many a man hath passed them both,
And entered in the night.

Have little care if neither heed
Thy clamor, call or din—
Take up the magic torch and key,
And let thine own self in!

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures the grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. G. L. Penny.

NEWS NOTES.

A stock company will build a $12,000 hospital at Mt. Sterling.

J. K. Lemon, a prominent Louisville merchant, died at Battle Creek, Mich., where he had gone for his health.

Thirty strikers were killed and over 80 injured in a clash with Mexican troops in the Grizaba mill district.

A lamp that exploded causing the death of Mrs. Ella Jones Longley in St. Louis, was filled with gasoline instead of kerosene.

Jacob Rider, a farmer of Gallatin county, hanged himself from a rafter in his barn. He was despondent because of ill-health.

The $700 reward for the arrest of Tom Wilson, the painter who ran amuck at Bowling Green, will go to M. C. Byrum, of Simpson county.

Louisville receives $318,000 for improvement of the Ohio river falls, under the Rivers and Harbors Bill, which has been agreed upon. Of this $314,000 is to be used to raise the level of the dam, deepening the channel as far up as Madison, Ind.

Because the farmers living along Rural Route No. 2, in Trigg county, refused to receive their mail from a Negro carrier, recently appointed, the Post-office Department has discontinued the route and the mail must be received in Cerulean Springs.

Trouble is feared at Jackson if the trial of former Judge James Hargis is taken up at this time, as both factions are heavily armed and in town in force. The trial judge will investigate the prospects for trouble and may ask the governor to send troops to protect the court and the witnesses. The regular sheriff was removed on motion of the defense, and efforts were made to select an elisor, but all those suggested have been refused.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now 11 years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store, 55c and $1. Trial bottle free.

"Let me take your knife, mine isn't sharp enough," said Tom Hansborough, a farmer 50 years old, of Shelby county, to his son. He got the knife and going to the edge of the creek which runs through his farm, cut his throat and jumped in the water. No cause is known for Hansborough's act. He leaves a wife and three grown children. His body has not been recovered.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. G. L. Penny.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Wilburn, a deputy sheriff of Bell county, who was a member of the posse which captured Frank Ball in the mountains of Virginia, and killed John Lee during the battle. Wilburn was working in Claiborne county, Tennessee, when the attempt was made.

The preliminary trial of the local option election contest at Somerset was held before Judge Barnett and two Magistrates and a decision rendered in favor of the validity of the election held December 6. The contestants alleged that the election was held within 30 days after the November election. Appeal will be taken to the Circuit Court at its February term and will be carried to the Court of Appeals in any event.

Special Policeman Morrow and Jailer Hines, after weeks of work, succeeded in landing a nest of coin counterfeiters behind the bars and capturing their moulds and full outfit. Three, two Negroes and one white, Everett Brookshire, W. M. Martin and Robert Sawyers, were caught in the act of making the bogus stuff, and officers are on the trail of several who were engaged in shoving it into circulation. One of the Negroes ran a repair shop in the vicinity of the jail as a blind. The metal used was block tin and watch cases of silverine, a quantity of which was captured by the sleuths. Further development and the connection of the parties with a regular gang may be expected.—Somerset Journal.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Bluntenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Blitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. Price 50c.

Miss Susie Newkirk and George White, both of Spears, Jessamine county, were married at Frankfort.

SALLIE, the beautiful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Traylor, died Wednesday evening and was buried at Goshen yesterday afternoon. Much sympathy is felt for the parents in the loss of their little darling.

DELINQUENT LIST.—Sheriff T. J. Hill told us yesterday that he would have his delinquent list ready for publication in Tuesday's paper. If you haven't paid your taxes and don't want your name to appear in the list you had better see Mr. Hill or one of his deputies at once.

FULLY 200 stallions, geldings, mares, jacks, nules and ponies will be sold under the hammer at the Combination Sale to be held here by Messrs. Dunn & Beazley on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, Jan. 16 and 17. If you want a choice animal you had better be here on those days.

UNLESS the Court of Appeals reverses the decision of the lower court or declares the Unit law unconstitutional Stanford will be a "dry" town in less than a month. Dan Traylor's saloon license is the first to expire—Jan. 19. Dan Hester's is out Jan. 26 and W. O. Speed's Feb. 9. H. S. Shanks' license to run a saloon at Rowland expires April 24 but that of W. P. Walker runs up to some time in August.

FROM the artistic sign in his window one would judge that Mr. H. J. McRoberts understands the game of cards pretty well, but we'll wager he can not tell the Ace of Spades from the Jack of Diamonds. His clever clerks, James Brady and Thomas Phillips, got the meaning of various cards from some bold, bad gambler and their play on them and general make up of their show window is worthy of a veteran window dresser.

Few more enjoyable plays have been presented at Walton's Opera House than "Along the Kennebec," which was most creditably given to a good house Wednesday evening. It is full of fun from start to finish and from the rise of the curtain until its fall in the last act the audience was in an uproar. The company presenting it is composed of the cleverest "show people" it has been our lot to deal with in years and we take pleasure in commending the players and play to all theatre goers. The company carries a splendid brass band and orchestra, but on account of the leader of the latter getting too much booze at Middlesboro, he was fired and the opera house piano took the place of an orchestra here.

New patterns in stamping. Mrs. K. P. Miller, Stanford.

MYERS' barn-door hangers, the best. At Singleton's store.

FOR SALE. One good milk wagon. George H. Simpson, Shelby City.

FOUND. Dallas Thurmond found the watch lost by Mrs. W. B. McRoberts and very cleverly returned it to her.

FARMERS.—If you have any of our packs, please return them at once or call and settle for them. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE six banks of Lincoln county have nearly $750,000 in individual deposits. And yet some people say these are not good times.

WE desire to extend our profound thanks to the good people who helped us in the sickness and death of our precious little daughter. We hope to some day partly reciprocate their good deeds ministered in the dark hour of our lives. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Traylor.

HOUSES FOR RENT.—I desire to rent for the year 1907 the Helm residence on Danville Avenue. There are five acres of land in the lot and the house is a very desirable one. Also the brick cottage on Somerset pike now occupied by George T. Wood. H. Helm, Stanford, Ky.

IN Tuesday's paper we will print the program to be given by Mesdames Anna R. Kentz, render, and Nelle DeMarque, pianist, at Walton's Opera House on Wednesday evening, Jan. 16. This entertainment will be for the benefit of the Christian church at Crab Orchard and it will be well worth your time and money to hear it.

IN the circuit court Logan Guest's administrator was given a verdict for $2,000 against the L. & N. Guest, who was a Negro, was killed while in the employ of the company. The suit was for $5,000. Tom Davis, for his son, Van Davis, is suing the L. & N. for $3,000 for injury the latter received while working on the grade near Hemp, Van Davis being an infant in the eyes of the law. The case will go to the jury to-day.

BEER comes high and is hard to get here but the saloons keep well supplied with it, notwithstanding. Those saloons that handle the Frank Fehr variety get it by express sent from New Albany, Ind., and those selling Newport brew have it shipped to Richmond and haul it from there in wagons. It is unlawful to ship spirituous, vinous and malt liquors from any part of Kentucky into Lincoln county since the Unit law went into effect.

CASH, NO DISCOUNT.—It is with pleasure that we accept draft for $1,000, delivered by Jesse D. Wearren, the insurance man, Stanford, Ky., for his portion of our loss of Dec. 20, last, on merchandise. For prompt and liberal settlement of losses we commend to property owners The Queen Insurance Co. of America, represented by Jesse D. Wearren, Stanford, Ky. Settlement cash, no discount. The Reynolds Co., Waynesburg, Ky., Jan. 7, 1907.

KILLED BY TRAIN.—At Moreland Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Garrison, aged 80, was run over and killed by a Q. & C. freight train while walking over the track at the Hustonville crossing. The train whistled but she evidently did not hear it and the engine struck her with terrific force. Mrs. Garrison was in bad health and some time ago suffered a paralytic stroke. The burial occurred in the Hustonville cemetery yesterday. Deceased is survived by her husband and several grown children.

THE following young people attended the meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club at the pretty country home of Miss Levisa Harris, near Hubble: Messrs. Jesse Alverson, Jack Rout, L. M. Huey, James Yowell, Harry Frye, Earl Coleman, Alfred Pence, John Menefee, Robert Woods, W. S. Embury, Fred Cook, Misses Nannie Woods Engleman, Pattie Alcorn, Sotie Alcorn, Sue T. A movement has been started to replace the Joel T. Hart statue "Woman Triumphant" destroyed in the burning of the old courthouse. How to Avoid Appendicitis.
Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.
More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

The South Carolina Senate adopted a resolution indorsing President Roosevelt's attitude in the Brownsville, Tex., affair.
